PERMANENT COLLECTION

Dutch Painting 1579–1800

The Prado’s collection ranges from the early Dutch painters, such as Frans Hals and Rembrandt, to the Rijnland masters, including Johannes Vermeer and Frans Hals. The collection focuses on the work of the 17th century, with a particular emphasis on the works of the early Dutch masters.

Spanish Painting 1100–1910

The collection includes works by some of the most important Spanish painters, including El Greco, Velázquez, and Goya. The collection covers the period from the 12th century to the 20th century, with a particular emphasis on the 16th and 17th centuries.

German Painting 1450–1800

The collection includes works by some of the most important German painters, including Albrecht Dürer and Lucas Cranach. The collection covers the period from the 15th century to the 18th century, with a particular emphasis on the 16th and 17th centuries.

Italian Painting 1300–1800

The collection includes works by some of the most important Italian painters, including Giotto and Raphael. The collection covers the period from the 14th century to the 18th century, with a particular emphasis on the 15th and 16th centuries.

Flemish Painting 1430–1560

The collection includes works by some of the most important Flemish painters, including Jan van Eyck and Peter Bruegel. The collection covers the period from the 15th century to the 16th century, with a particular emphasis on the 16th century.

French Painting 1579–1800

The collection includes works by some of the most important French painters, including Watteau and Chardin. The collection covers the period from the 17th century to the 18th century, with a particular emphasis on the 18th century.

DECORATIVE ARTS

The collection includes works by some of the most important decorative artists, including Frans Hals and Rembrandt. The collection covers the period from the 16th century to the 20th century, with a particular emphasis on the 17th century.

PRINTS AND DRAWINGS

The collection includes works by some of the most important printmakers and draftsmen, including Rembrandt and Goya. The collection covers the period from the 15th century to the 20th century, with a particular emphasis on the 17th and 18th centuries.

ITALIAN DECORATIVE ARTS

The collection includes works by some of the most important Italian decorative artists, including Pordenone and Titian. The collection covers the period from the 16th century to the 18th century, with a particular emphasis on the 17th century.

MEDIEVAL AND ROMANESQUE ART

The collection includes works by some of the most important medieval and Romanesque artists, including Giotto and Duccio. The collection covers the period from the 11th century to the 13th century, with a particular emphasis on the 13th century.

THE VADELLA COLLECTION

The collection includes works by some of the most important Vaide collection artists, including Raphael and Duccio. The collection covers the period from the 15th century to the 18th century, with a particular emphasis on the 16th century.

THE POMPEO LEONI COLLECTION

The collection includes works by some of the most important Pompei collection artists, including Veronese and Titian. The collection covers the period from the 16th century to the 18th century, with a particular emphasis on the 17th century.

THE PERNICE COLLECTION

The collection includes works by some of the most important Pernice collection artists, including Caravaggio and Tiepolo. The collection covers the period from the 17th century to the 18th century, with a particular emphasis on the 18th century.

THE PRADO’S FINE ARTS FUND

The collection includes works by some of the most important Prado’s fine arts fund artists, including Velázquez and Goya. The collection covers the period from the 17th century to the 20th century, with a particular emphasis on the 18th century.

THE POMPEI COLLECTION

The collection includes works by some of the most important Pompei collection artists, including Veronese and Titian. The collection covers the period from the 16th century to the 18th century, with a particular emphasis on the 17th century.

THE VADELLA COLLECTION

The collection includes works by some of the most important Vaide collection artists, including Raphael and Duccio. The collection covers the period from the 15th century to the 18th century, with a particular emphasis on the 16th century.

THE PERNICE COLLECTION

The collection includes works by some of the most important Pernice collection artists, including Caravaggio and Tiepolo. The collection covers the period from the 17th century to the 18th century, with a particular emphasis on the 18th century.